Ah! What a funny day it was. I am kind of vexed over myself. This man whom I met today, he was my friend many years back but I was not able of recognise him. I am so ashamed of myself. He was so warm and affectionate. I could feel his love for me. But I did not remember anything. He made some comments to make me smile and recall the past. But I felt he was not happy the way I replied. He had an infectious smile. He blessed me and gave me good wishes. It was good to meet him.

Dear Cole

It's been long since we met. I am dying to tell you something about how I won the princess. I am getting married. I won the contest and so I am so delighted.

I can't believe this. There were three round and I cleared all of them because I did my best when no one was looking. I helped ants, ducks and bees on my way so they helped me to win the contest to get married to the charming princess.

I would like to invite you to my wedding next month. It is on 10 July.

I hope you would make it.

Yours lovingly

Writing

Monday mornings are the most hateful mornings for me. After two days off and lots of lazing around, I don't feel like following the same routine of getting early and going to school. I feel so drowsy whole day. The traffic on the road is insane. The Monday blues start with the stress of home work and assignments submission in the class. I feel so pissed off and panic every Monday morning. This is followed by missing my school bus and reaching school late and then facing the teachers and their scoldings. I hate Monday mornings.

Global Warming

Our environment is facing a great challenge these days. It is causing a set of changes to the Earth's climate or long-term weather patterns. Glaciers are melting, sea levels are rising, ozone layer is depleting. It is a rise of the average temperature of the Earth's climate. The largest human influence has been the emission of greenhouse gases. Fossil fuel burning is the principal source of these gases. Afforestation is the only way to deal with this problem.
