My School

The name of my school is ----- . I love my school because it is one of the best schools in town. My school classrooms are wide, large and airy. Our school has a very large playground where we play different sports. There is a computer lab, science lab and a big library in my school. All of the teachers of my school are very kind and polite. My school also takes part in various extra curriculum activities like sports, quiz competition, speeches etc. We celebrate all national events with great enthusiasm and spirit in our school. I am proud to be a student of my school.

My Best Friend

My best friend name is ----- . She is six years old. We study in the same school. We study in the same class. We play together. He is very friendly and naughty. He is very intelligent and comes first in class. His favourite game is badminton. His favourite food is Rajma and rice. His favourite colour is blue. His favourite subject is English. I love him very much.

Diwali

India is a country where people celebrate many festivals. Diwali is the most important festival of Hindus. It is called the festival of lights. Diwali is celebrated because on this day Lord Rama returned to Ayodhya after cutting 14 years of exile. In the joy of Lord Shri Rama returning to Ayodhya, the people celebrated this day as Diwali. The festival of Diwali falls every year in the month of October or November. On this day, the whole of India is decorated like a bride. Lord Lakshmi and Ganesha are worshiped on the evening of Diwali. On this day, all the people light lamps in their homes, shops, offices, etc. On Diwali, everyone gives sweets, gifts, etc. to their neighbours and relatives.

Morning Walk

I like to go on a morning walk with my father. It makes me feel active and refreshed. It is really good for health. It is a good way to breathe in fresh air. It also makes our mind active. The cool and fresh air makes us to be happy. I take my pet Tommy also with me. It is my favourite exercise. I enjoy morning walk very much.

Computer

Computer is a very fast device. It is capable of doing large calculations. They are very accurate. It has a large storage. It can work for long time without getting tired like humans. Every computer has a language of its own. It is called a programming language. Computers have five major components; input, store, control, processing and output. They mainly perform the functions of addition, subtraction, multiplication, division and comparison. It is very important for us.

1. The shepherd boy felt bore one day.
 2. The villagers thought it was a trick.
 3. The villagers saw a wolf running away.
 4. Many sheep were killed by the wolf.
- B. One there was a shepherd boy who had to look after a flock of sheep. One day he felt bored and decided to play a trick on the villagers. He started crying and shouting for help saying that a wolf had come. When the villagers went to save him he told them that he was doing it fun. After few days he did the same thing again. Then, after few days, a wolf really went into the field. The wolf attacked one sheep, and then another and another. The shepherd boy again ran towards the village shouting for help. The villagers heard his cries but they laughed because they thought it was just another trick. Finally, the villagers went to look and found it true. We may not believe someone who often tells lies, even when he tells the truth.
